

Directions to South Grange Bed and Breakfast

From the direction of M25 (junction 5), A21, A268 via Hawkhurst, A28 via Tenterden.

After crossing the river Rother then the Kent and East Sussex Railway level crossing, go up the slope towards Northiam village.

Fork left on A268 for Rye.

Along this twisting road, pass Four Wheel Drive Centre on right in small valley.

Quickbourne Lane is 200 yards on right at the top of short hill with a telegraph pole on the corner. The lane is named.

South Grange is about 600 yards on the right.

From the direction of Folkestone, Dungeness, Camber via Rye and A268
(Also recommended M20 via Ashford follow A2070 Brenzett and A259 Rye)

Some 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ miles after Beckley mini roundabout look for row of houses on right just after left and right bends.

Quickbourne Lane is beside telegraph pole on left opposite the last of the row of houses. You can come up to it unprepared, there is no sign.

If you overshoot, turn round at Four Wheel Drive Centre.

South Grange is about 600 yards down Quickbourne Lane on the right.

(Alternatively, turn left at Beckley mini roundabout B2088 and enter Northiam on A28 from Hastings.)

From direction of South Coast; Brighton, Eastbourne, Hastings etc.

Enter village on A28 and follow to village centre.

Some 150 yards beyond Post Office, turn right into Beales Lane.

Beales Lane becomes Quickbourne Lane after some 600 yards at a small grass triangle.

South Grange is the third house on the left, some 300 yards.
